THE people of Kentucky will stand by Governor TAYLOR for having called the Democratic bluff.

THE "compromise" that Governor TAYLOR was asked to sign was one that would "compromise" himself

The theft of over 200,000 votes be-longing to the freemen of Kentucky is now up to the so-called Democratic members of the Legislature.

HEREAPTER, when the Republicans nominate a man for Lieutenant-Gov-ernor, it might be well to learn in ad-vance whether he is afraid of his own shadow. Mr. MARSHALL appears to SENATOR THOMAS H. HAYS of Louisville is a Democrat and an old Confederate soldier. This isn't the first time he has heard the "long roll," and he is entitled to all hours of standing bravely with the Republicans at London. Senator, we salute you!

WHEN the clouds roll by people of all parties will respect Governor TAY-LOR for an exhibit of backbone that was in strong contrast to the weak members who were ready and willing to surrender the rights of the men who elected him to the Governorship.

SUPPOSE EPH. LILLARD or JACK CHINN, or even HOORAY WOODSON OR WILLARD MITCHELL, were in Gov-ernor W. S. TAYLOR's place;—would either of them "surrender" because a few chalk-and-water Democrats had met in a private room and requested them to do so? Not on your Gatling red, Henry Gardner and Thomas agreement surrendering his high office at the request of a few chalk-and-water Republicans, made on the demand of the Democratic office-seeking and buildozing gang, it would have been a display of cowardice that even the Democrats would have despised.

Text Fee FiGHTS AT A FUNERAL, the Democratic of the Russian Nihilist, Peter Layroski, in Paris, the Occasion

IF General TAYLOR is thrown out IF General TAYLOR is thrown out now and Mr. BECKHAN made Governor, the responsibility will rest entirely upon the Democrats. According to the views of the situation held by the Republican leaders in Washington, such action will justify the Senate in rejecting Mr. BLACKEURN.
